Your 2021-22 FAFSA/CADAA contains conflicting information regarding your marital status and 2019 tax filing status. The Department of Education requires the resolution of conflicting information prior to awarding financial aid.

Your application indicates that your “Marital Status” is Married and the “Tax Filing Status” is Head of Household. You are able to file as “Head of Household” if you meet all the following requirements:

1. You are unmarried or “considered unmarried” on the last day of the year.
You are considered unmarried on the last day of the tax year if you meet all the following criteria:
 - A. You file a separate return.
 - B. You paid more than half the cost of keeping up your home for the tax year.
 - C. Your spouse did not live in your home during the last 6 months of the tax year. Your spouse is considered to live in your home even if he or she is temporarily absent due to special circumstances.
 - D. Your home was the main home of your child, stepchild, or foster child for more than half the year.
 - E. You must be able to claim an exemption for the child.

Based on the IRS filing requirements, were you qualified to file “Head of Household”? Yes No

If you answered NO, you/ your spouse were not eligible to file “Head of Household”, he or she may need to file an amendment to their tax return to correct the filing status. We recommend that you contact your tax preparer or the IRS (1-800-829-1040) to discuss how to file an amendment and possible tax implications.

1. File an amended 2019 IRS income tax return (1040X) to correct your filing status.
2. Submit both a signed copy of the 1040X Form and a 2019 IRS Tax Return Transcript to the Financial Aid Office.

If you answered YES, attach a written statement explaining in detail why you were allowed to file using the “Head of Household” status as of 12/31/19. In addition complete the information below and attach IRS supporting documentation, a letter from your tax preparer, proof of each person’s address, or any other supporting documentation to verify this information.
