

NAME OF PROGRAM: Intermediate Academic and Vocational English as a Second Language (M.3033.CC)

NAME OF DEGREE/CERTIFICATE: Certificate of Competency

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION:

The Certificate of Competency in Intermediate Academic and Vocational English as a Second Language prepares high-beginning to low-intermediate ESL students with reading, writing and oral skills in English needed to succeed in a variety of intermediate social vocational and academic situations. Students attaining this certificate will be ready to begin study toward the Advanced Academic and Vocational English as a Second Language Certificate.
This is a noncredit Certificate of Competency. Students must take the noncredit option for ESL courses to achieve the certificate.

SEMESTER 1

COURSE NUMBER	COURSE TITLE	Weekly Hours	ADVISING/ACTION NOTES
ESL-312	Low-Intermediate Reading, Writing, and Grammar	6	Work with Counselor and/or Advisor to select appropriate level of ESL to start in program.
ESL-312LS OR ESL-313LS AND ESL-313G	Low-Intermediate Listening and Speaking Intermediate Listening and Speaking Intermediate Academic Grammar	6 3 3	Only one of these courses is required for the certificate: ESL-312LS or ESL-313G and ESL-313LS. All are highly recommended.
	TOTAL Weekly Hours	12	Visit the Reading and Writing Center for support.

SEMESTER 2

COURSE NUMBER	COURSE TITLE	Weekly Hours	ADVISING/ACTION NOTES
ESL-313	Intermediate Academic Reading and Writing	6
ESL-312LS OR ESL-313LS AND ESL-313G	Low-Intermediate Listening and Speaking Intermediate Listening and Speaking Intermediate Academic Grammar	6 3 3	Only one of these courses is required for the certificate: ESL-312LS or ESL-313G and ESL-313LS. All are highly recommended.
	TOTAL Weekly Hours	12	Apply for graduation with certificate in Intermediate Academic and Vocational English as a Second Language.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES:

This map is intended to be used as a tool in discussion with your counselor for the creation of your personalized Student Education Plan (SEP).

MADERA
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

The intermediate ESL certificate prepares students for the Academic and Vocational English as a Second Language academic certificate.

This map is intended to be used as a tool in discussion with your counselor for the creation of your personalized Student Education Plan (SEP).